IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER & NOTICE

Informational Purpose Only

This directory is published and distributed strictly for informational, educational, and community resource navigation purposes. It serves as a practical starting point for residents, families, and organizations seeking recovery assistance.

No Endorsement or Recommendation

The St. Lucie Disaster Recovery Coalition (SLDRC), United Way of St. Lucie & Okeechobee, and their respective officers, directors, employees, volunteers, agents, and partnering organizations do not endorse, recommend, warrant, or guarantee any business, service provider, organization, agency, product, or individual listed within this guide. The inclusion or omission of any entity does not constitute or imply any association, sponsorship, vetting, accreditation, or endorsement of quality, reliability, pricing, or fitness for a particular purpose.

Independent Due Diligence Required

Users of this guide are solely responsible for exercising their own independent judgment and conducting thorough due diligence before engaging with, contracting with, or relying on any listed provider. It is the responsibility of each individual or organization to independently verify:

- Active professional licensing, registrations, and certifications with local, state, or federal authorities.
- Adequate commercial liability, property, and workers' compensation insurance coverage.
- Current operational status, service availability, eligibility criteria, pricing, and references.

Limitation of Liability & Assumption of Risk

While reasonable efforts are made to compile accurate contact and service information, details may change without notice. Neither SLDRC, United Way, nor any affiliated partners assume any legal liability, responsibility, or obligation for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages, losses, personal injury, property damage, or contractual disputes resulting from the use of, reference to, or reliance upon the information contained in this guide or the performance/non-performance of any listed provider.
